

Carshalton Boys School Diners Project

On Saturday 25th November at 5.30pm, Carshalton Boys Sports College opened our first ever pop up restaurant under the guidance of celebrity chef Mark Lloyd (as a part of his 'School Diners' project). This event was been completely organised by a group of Y8/Y9 students to raise money for The Royal Marsden Cancer Charity (chosen by them).

The boys cooked and served a three course Michelin star quality menu, designed by Chef Lloyd. The décor, restaurant branding and entertainment was all the work of our wonderful students. The evening was a huge success and raised over £2500 for The Royal Marsden, an amazing achievement!

I just wanted express my extreme pride in our boys and how proud I felt being a part of this school community. It is truly an awesome place to work. The evening was first class throughout. At times quite emotional but underlying everything was our students – utterly fantastic.

This is fantastic - We thoroughly enjoyed the evening, it was a great night and the boys all worked so hard It was such a lovely evening and I am so incredibly proud of Vito, Thank you for giving all of the boys the opportunity to shine.

Thanks for sending through the pictures, it was a brilliant evening and a fantastic amount raised for the Royal Marsden. Feeling super proud!

*Thank you for giving my son this fantastic opportunity. He enjoyed every minute of the evening.

Year 11 Geography Fieldwork

In their p6s this week the year 11 geographers went and collected data in the local area for their human element of compulsory fieldwork. They collected data for environmental quality, land use & also asked local community/members of the public about their opinions of the environmental quality.

Over the next 2 weeks they will be writing their fieldwork up & answering the following question "To what extent do land use and deprivation affect environmental quality along Wrythe Lane?" Please feel free to discuss with them, the more they talk about it, the more they understand & think about it!
